TELLY TIME

WOW!! Better keep your eyeballs glued to ABC-TV's new Friday night musical-variety series This Is Tom Jones, cos Tom's got quite a few of your favorite stars lined up for guest appearances. Look for Davy Jones, Herman's Hermits, the Bee Gees, Lulu, Mama Cass Elliot, the Supremes, Sonny & Cher, Pat Paulson and Goldie Hawn—to name a few! . . . Speaking of Goldie—didja know that she will be one of the many stars in the NBC-TV special The Spring Thing on April 28th? . . . Didja see Diana (The Avengers) Rigg in CBS-TV's long-awaited Royal Shakespeare Company production of A Midsummer Night's Dream on February 9th? Diana was delightful! . . . Among the many stars who will join Mama Cass Elliot for her ABC-TV spec on April 8th are John Sebastian, the Fool, Martin Landau and Barbara Bain. Don't miss it!

Handsome David Canary made his singing debut in a recent episode of The Donald O'Connor Show — and that Canary can really sing! (Maybe he'll be cutting a record soon — hope so!) . . . Simmons Mattress Company is one of the sponsors of an up'n' coming ABC-TV special, A Night With Mae West. Look for marvelous Mae to do her thing on the tube—soon! . . . Kevin (Wild In The Streets) Coughlin has been busier than a groupie at an all-star freakout lately. Aside from his current movies, Kevin made recent guest appearances in The Virginian, Gunsmoke and Judd For The Defense . . . Tige Andrews of Mod Squad is going to Rome, Italy, to co-star with Albert Finney in a movie based on the life of Madame de Pompadour. (Gee, who'll boss Mike, Peggy and Clarence around while Tige's away?) . . . Enzo Cerusico buys pizzas for the entire crew of NBC-TV's My Friend Tony after each episode is completed. (Better cut it out, Enzo—or My Friend Tony will have the fattest cast in town!) . . . Didja know that Wayne Maunder of CBS-TV's Lancer once had a driving ambition to be a professional baseball player? Wayne tried out with several major teams, but each time he was injured and blew his chance. (Baseball's loss was TV's gain!)

ATT: Flying Nun luvvers! If The Flying Nun is one of ABC-TV's last-minute cancellations, don't despair! Sally Field is currently working in a two-hour TV movie, Gidget Grows Up. . . . Leonard Nimoy wrote four of the songs on his new Dot LP, The Touch Of Leonard Nimoy. Itza don't miss! . . . A projected series is in the works for Jon Provost. Didja know that Jon collects souvenir spoons from different parts of the world? He has spoons from Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Mexico and parts of Canada. . . . Didja know that David Soul of Here Come The Brides once made more than 25 guest appearances in The Merv Griffin Show as "The Covered Man" — a mysterious, hooded singer? (Gee, David, now that you've taken off your mask — why not start singin' again? Bobby Sherman has!) . . . Didja know that Robert Brown of Here Come The Brides was born 39 years ago on the Isle of Skye in the Hebrides Islands of Scotland? Robert came to the U.S. at the age of four!) . . . Didja see Gloria Foster (Clarence Williams III's real-life wife) in Mod Squad last February 11th? She was really fantastic! . . . Don't miss Mike Vincent's Bonanza seg — "The Unwanted"!

Keep tuned to Telly Time for the latest news on some of your favorite TV shows that may be cancelled. Telly Time will let you know where to write your letters that may be able to save them!!

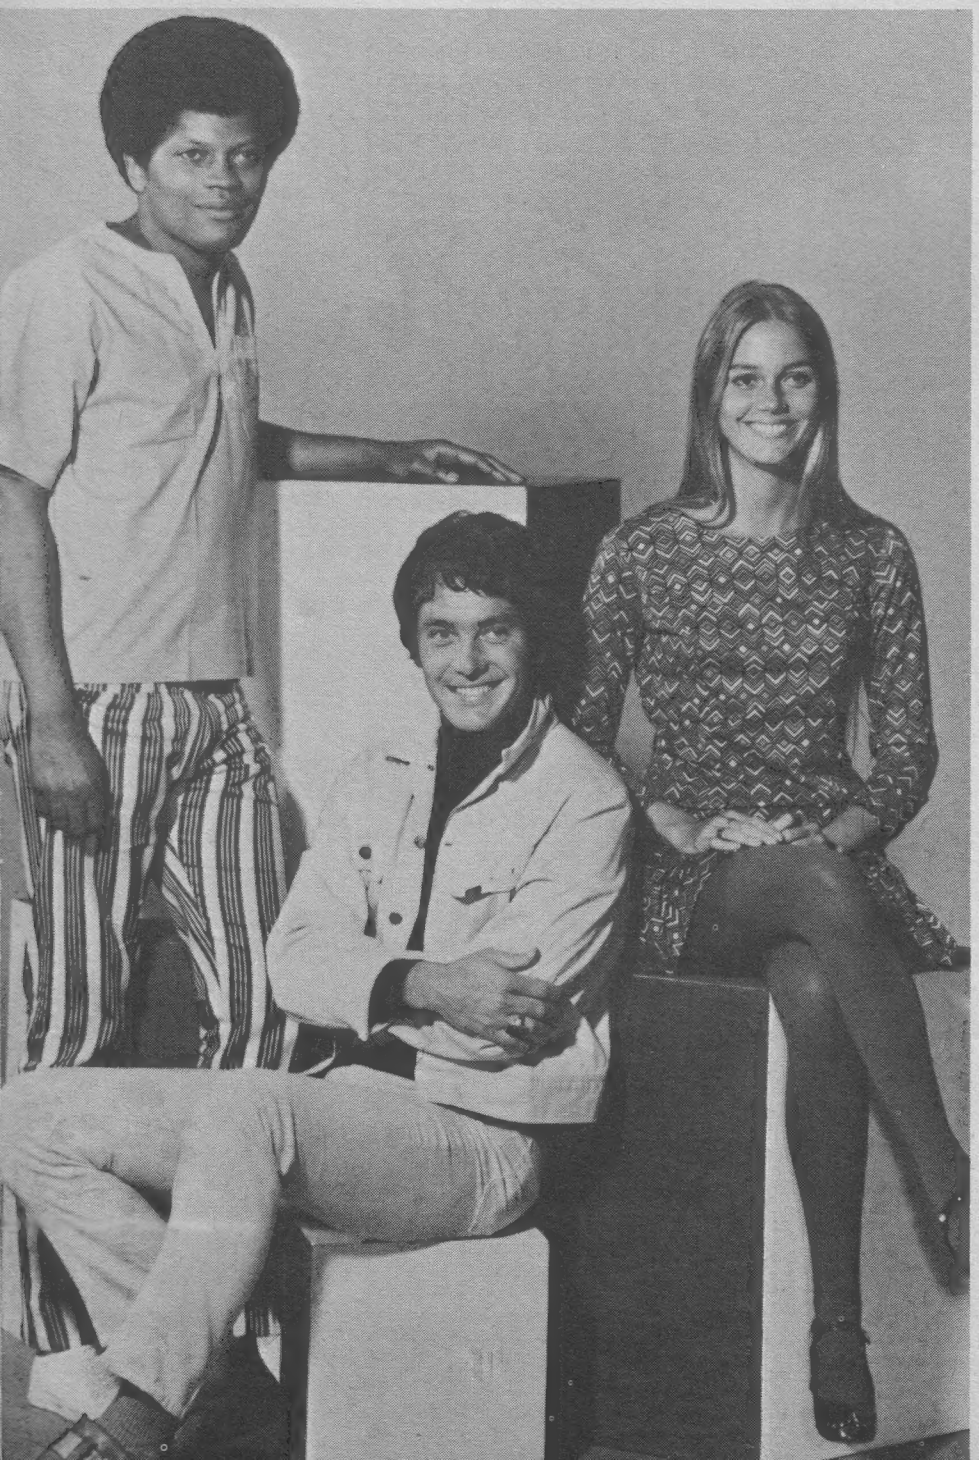
A DAY ON THE SET OF MODS



CHAPTER THREE

YOU'RE STANDING OFF to the side of the set. You still cannot quite believe that it's you here in Paramount's Studio 1B actually with Michael Cole, Clarence Williams III and Peggy Lipton as they finish filming a Mod Squad segment. As you watch Michael (calm, but as full of striking potential as a coiled python) and Clarence (malevolent and dynamic at the same time) and Peggy (quiet, serene and profound) go through their acting chores, you are struck more than ever by the depth of their sincerity and the extent of their talent. In your secret heart, your only wish is that the whole world could see them just as you see them now!

Soon, Mike is walking off the set. He heads straight for you and laughingly hands you an artificial banana, which had just been used in a delicatessen scene they shot! "Come on back to the dressing room," Mike says, making your heart skip a beat as he looks at you with his translucent blue eyes. "We've got a long conversation to finish."

CLARENCE'S SECRETS

One of the two things you wanted Michael to talk to you about this afternoon was Clarence Williams — and his (Michael's) likes and dislikes when it comes to girls. Just to make sure that you won't forget anything, you have taken out a little notebook — and later, when you look at your notes, here are the things you will remember that Michael told you about Clarence.

Clarence doesn't like to talk about himself and, generally speaking, he doesn't like to give interviews. It's not because of any particular reason, except that he has been misquoted a few times and he doesn't want to take a chance of it happening again.

In the privacy of his dressing room, Mike Cole shares with you his secret thoughts about Clarence Williams, Peggy Lipton—and girls, love and marriage!!

QUAD

Clarence is married to actress Gloria Foster Williams, and they live in Laurel Canyon near Michael's house. They were married in November, 1967.

Michael and Peggy are frequent visitors to Clarence and Gloria's home.

Clarence has a pet dachshund named "Ipswich," which he bought in New York years ago.

Clarence loves to wear native African shirts that are made in Africa. They are called (phonetically) dashikes.

Two of Clarence's closest friends are Sammy Davis, Jr., and Bill Cosby. It is because of Bill and Sammy that Clarence got his present role in Mod Squad. In fact, Clarence's dressing room is the dressing room that Bill used to have when he filmed I Spy on the same set.

Clarence got started as an actor at a Harlem YMCA, when he was still going to Food Trades Vocational High School in New York City.

Clarence appeared in numerous plays in New York, including Double Talk, The Great Indoors and Shakespeare's King John at the New York Shakespeare Festival. He first won public acclaim with his brilliant performance in Slow Dance On The Killing Ground, an off-Broadway show.

Clarence was in the film The Cool World and has done Daktari, Tarzan and a Danny Thomas special on TV.

"Clarence is very idealistic," Michael tells you. "He has intelligence, strength and great courage. I consider it a privilege to be his friend. When you look at him on TV, I am sure you can see his fine qualities. They come through no matter what role Clarence plays."

MICHAEL AND GIRLS

"Well," Michael chuckles, after you've asked him to talk to you about girls. "The first thing that comes to my mind is that a lot of people think Peggy and I date or go steady. Let me assure you and all of your friends that we're just friends — we're very good friends. Peggy has a steady boy friend who is a record producer. When I manage to find a little free time, I sometimes drop by and rap with Peggy and Lou — her boy friend. I would do anything for her — or for Clarence, for that. We're all three very close. But there is definitely no romance between Peggy and me."

Mike pauses for a moment and then suddenly begins to peel the orange he had snatched from a "prop" fruit bowl on the set early that morning. After a moment, he gently breaks the orange apart and hands you half. "Remember when I asked you to have lunch with me?" he asks. "Well, this is it!" Then he laughs, "I hope you like it!"

And indeed you do! In fact, sitting there sharing the orange with beautiful Michael Cole, you realize that it is probably the best lunch you ever had!

"Well, back to girls," Mike begins again. "I have no plans to get married anytime soon. But, believe me, I look forward to marriage one day. I cannot describe my special girl, because I like all girls. It doesn't matter to me what color a girl's hair is or what size she is as long as she tries to be neat and takes good care of herself. I like girls who are bright and curious, and who don't mind voicing their opinions.

"In a way, marriage is on my mind more than it is on most young guys' minds. You see, I love children and I can't wait to have a big family of my own. I'd like a big, rambling house, lots of kids and lots of pets — a regular zoo! Listen, I may even have a pig or two!" Michael throws back his head and laughs.

Suddenly the set bell rings and both of you jump a little and exchange smiles, realizing that it is time for Michael to go to work again. And you know that it is time for you to think about leaving.

It has been a rich, full day, and you hope that there will be others — many more like this one — to come. As you leave the set, Clarence comes over to shake your hand. Peggy comes over and gives you a bear hug. "Now, hurry back," she says warmly.

Last of all, Michael walks you to the door. For a moment, he looks deep into your eyes. You catch your breath as he leans forward and kisses you gently on the cheek. He doesn't say anything; he just smiles and walks away. And he takes a great big piece of your heart with him.

"My Hates BOBBY S

Bobby confides the things that turn him off...

I HATE getting up very early in the morning. However, I am beginning to get used to it—since I have to rise at 5:30 A.M. every day in order to be on the set on time. I used to be a night person, but now that I'm a regular in Here Come The Brides—things have changed!

I HATE violence. I don't think it solves anything and only causes more disruption. I'm a firm believer in the motto "Love Conquers All."

I HATE burnt or overly-spiced foods. Actually, I'm not that much of an eater, anyway.

I HATE broccoli, meat loaf and liver —no matter how they are prepared.

I HATE big parties. I prefer small, intimate get-togethers, where there isn't mass confusion. That way, you can sit and talk with all the guests.

I HATE crowded elevators. Maybe I have claustrophobia, cos I don't like to feel all closed in.

I HATE traveling on airplanes—but since it's the fastest means of transportation, I do fly. However, given a choice, I'll take a train and really get to see the country.

I HATE to be treated special or different from anyone else, just because I'm in show business. It makes me uncomfortable when I'm put on a pedestal. I'd much rather be treated like any other guy—cos that's all I am. Just because I work in front of a camera, instead of behind a desk, doesn't change the fact that I'm a human being with the same faults and feelings as anyone else.

I HATE when my fans are afraid to approach me or talk to me. I consider each and every one of you a special friend—and I want you to know that. In fact, I look forward to meeting and chatting with you.

I HATE people who don't keep promises—and I try never to say anything I don't mean. I really believe it's important to treat people the same way you want them to treat you.

I HATE being extravagant—but it's one of my biggest weaknesses. I'm constantly using my charge accounts and my purchases are usually clothes.

I HATE sloppiness in manners, appearance and so on. It takes such a little effort to care for yourself—and the results are worth it.

I HATE to read untrue rumors about myself—cos it frightens me that my fans may believe something that isn't true, and I won't have the opportunity to set them straight. That's why I hope you'll always check with 16 Magazine—or me —for the facts!

I HATE to give up on any project or goal I set for myself, and I make it a point to always think positive and work hard.

I HATE to wear ties—and I don't unless I have to. I prefer casual clothes to all others.

I HATE to do anything foolish—like sticking my finger in a live electric socket. Don't laugh, I did it once on the set of Here Come The Brides. Boy, did my hair stand on end!

I HATE people who tell fibs. I don't go along with the excuse that little white lies are harmless.

I HATE to hear girls gossip. There are so many better things to talk about.

I HATE to hear anyone put down another person—especially behind his back.

I HATE girls who put on airs and who pull things like deliberately being late for a date and so on. Girls like that are so busy playing games you don't have a chance to get to know and like the real them.

I HATE thinking negatively, so let's move on to something more pleasant—like the things I love!

I LOVE reading your letters. It's like hearing from a good friend. If you'd like to

Loves" by

...and the things that give him a nice warm glow!

I LOVE love!

I LOVE life, and I firmly believe that you can make your own happiness by just looking forward to each day with positive thoughts.

I LOVE show business — and have for as long as I can remember. I can't imagine myself doing anything else. Even if I wasn't a performer, I would work in some capacity of show business behind the scenes.

I LOVE music. It's a very necessary part of my life, and I spend literally hours listening to it. By the way, I just signed a recording contract with Metromedia Records — and my first single will be out very soon.

I LOVE all of the people I work with in Here Come The Brides. We've all grown so close, it's like having a second family!

I LOVE talking to people who are not afraid to express their opinions and to be themselves.

I LOVE to drive in the rain — that is, as long as my car wasn't just washed! In fact, I really don't mind rain at all.

I LOVE to watch TV and I find it very relaxing.

I LOVE my recording studio. It's my second home, and I spend quite a bit of time there.

I LOVE the theme song of Here Come The Brides. The title is Seattle, and I'll probably record it for a track on my first LP.

I LOVE sports, and I like to watch or participate in as many as possible.

I LOVE groovy people — and girls who are fun to be with.

I LOVE photography. It has long been one of my hobbies.

I LOVE my family — which includes my mom and dad, my sister Darlene, her husband and their four children. By the way, I'm the "Godfather" of Darlene's son Bobby. Guess who he was named after?

I LOVE my poodle "Silly" and I wish I were home more often to take care of him. He's been living with my folks, cos I don't want him to be home alone in my apartment so much.

I LOVE creating. That's why I enjoy writing songs and scripts.

I LOVE Disneyland, and I find it more beautiful each and every time I go there. It's one of my favorite places to go with a date.

I LOVE my midnight-blue Rolls Royce. I couldn't wait to get it and now it's my most prized possession.

I LOVE lifting weights. It's not only challenging, but it helps me to keep in shape.

I LOVE Las Vegas and San Francisco — but then, I like so many cities that I don't have room to list them all here.

I LOVE playing musical instruments — especially the trumpet, cos it was the first one I learned to play.

I LOVE to see girls dressed in what looks best on them, rather than just following the crowd.

I LOVE looking through scrapbooks or old pictures, cos I'm extremely sentimental and I love reminiscing.

I LOVE walking along the beach with a girl at night, or looking out at the ocean just as the sun is going down.

"MY LIFE IN PIX" by MICHAEL VINCENT

CHAPTER ONE

I TRULY BELIEVE that a person can influence his future—but the past is something that can't be changed. Since we've only just met, I'd like to share my past with you. So, come along with me back to the very beginning.

My life began on July 15, 1947, in Denver, Colorado. My mom Doris and my dad Lloyd took this pic of their first son when I was six months old.

By the time I was a year old, we had moved to Hanford, California—and that's where I spent most of my childhood.

Even at a tender age, I was fond of animals. This pic was taken at our 20-acre ranch in Hanford. My dad raised cows and I helped (?) him.

I was a very active little toddler—and I shouldn't admit it, but Mom called me her "little pixie". Needless to say, it wasn't my favorite nickname!

This picture was taken just before my third birthday. I thought I was so grown up! Little did I know what was ahead of me!

By the time I was seven, I had a beautiful little sister Jacquie (five) and a baby brother Chris (seven months).

Well, we've run out of room—but there are still a few more years I want to tell you about, so I'll be back next month to pick up where I left off! Be sure to get a copy of the June issue of 16 Magazine. It goes on sale April 22nd. See you then!

"My Teenage Rampage" by MARK LINDSAY

When you're a teenager, you feel things more deeply than you ever do again in your entire life. And so at 15, when Mark fell in love and lost — his whole world turned upside down! But not for long!

I HAD JUST turned 16 and I had already learned what it was to love and lose. When I was 15 years old, I had really fallen in love with a shy, awkward, not-so-popular girl—someone just like me. In the happy months that followed, I watched her blossom like a flower, become a truly lovely creature—and then she broke my heart as I watched her slowly but surely slip away from me.

I think that when you're a teenager, you feel things more deeply than you ever do again in your entire life—whether it's love, jealousy, happiness or sorrow. The passion of a teenager has heights and depths that are seldom reached again in his or her lifetime. I am sure you understand what I mean.

IF ONLY I HAD KNOWN

When Betty, after growing more and more indifferent, finally suggested to me that we both start dating other people, I couldn't believe my ears. Our months of happiness flashed before my eyes like a beautiful movie, yet reality told me the bitter truth. As I turned and ran away, little did I know there was more heartbreak to come. The next day, between classes, the final blow fell. I was walking near the area where Betty's locker was. Before I turned the corner, I heard a girl's voice.

"Are you going to the dance Friday night, Betty?"

When I heard that name, I froze in my tracks.

"Yes," Betty's voice replied.

"With Mark?" another girl asked.

"No, I'm going with Richard."

There was silence for a moment, and then I heard a couple of girls say, "Oh, he's neat." "Yeah—he's really sharp."

I turned and walked away. I knew who Richard was, all right. He was the one guy in the whole school who was supposed to be my buddy! As I pointed out before, I wasn't very popular in high school, but Richard was one of those happy, smiling cats who got along with everyone—even skinny, self-conscious me.

Once again, I found my head spinning. Once again, I felt that it was all too much to bear. So I just kept walking—and I walked right out of the school. At first, I started for the woods, and then I thought—No, man, I'm going downtown!

Somehow, I ended up in front of Greg's Bike Shop. In the window was the most beautiful Harley Davidson "74" I had even seen. In fact, it was the only one I had ever seen. As I stood there looking at this bike, I had a kind of daydream. I could see me on it. I'd be wearing black leather pants and a black leather jacket and those big, wrap-around goggles. My hair would be long and I'd be speeding right through the center of town—zooming at 100 miles per hour! Everybody would turn and stare at me. The guys would be wishing they were me—and the girls would be wishing they were with me. Yeah, and I'd be sure to drive right by Betty and her sweet little lollipop Richard. I'd show them a thing or two! She'd wish she had me back!

REBEL WITH A CAUSE

The very next day I got myself an afternoon job. And guess where? At the bike shop! It wasn't anything glamorous. I wasn't even a grease monkey—I just swept the floor. But I swept it cleaner than it had ever been swept before. Soon, the owner of the shop had me doing other odds and ends, and I saved every penny I made. The harder I worked at my part-time job, the less interest I had in school. I would go home from work late at night, grab a bite to eat and lie in bed. As soon as I thought my parents were asleep, I would sneak out my transistor radio and listen to the all-night rock and roll stations. Soon, I was singing along with the records, and it wasn't long before I became obsessed by two things—to be a pop singer and to drive fast bikes and cars!

The weeks rolled into months and the new Mark Lindsay let his hair grow, got his bike—and became an immensely popular guy in high school! In fact, my popularity increased in exact ratio to my grades' decrease, but I sang at the Student Assembly in an amateur show and won first prize! In my junior year, I was elected president of my class—in spite of the fact that I had a bad attendance record and had even been caught skipping school!

It's funny, but I had started doing all of this just to get "even" with Betty—but as time went by, she didn't matter anymore. I would see her looking at me out of the corner of her eye sometimes, and once in awhile she smiled at me—and I had the satisfaction of knowing in my heart that she really wanted me back. It's funny about that too. Because I knew in my heart that she didn't want the real me—she wanted the high school "star" I had become. She wanted me to decorate her arm as we walked side-by-side. Well, there wasn't a chance of that happening—not in a million years! In spite of all the wild things I did, somehow I managed to stay a basic and honest human being.

GOOD-BYE TO ALL THAT

When I was a junior, just before graduation, a strange thing happened to me. They say that a person's life develops in cycles —like every several years a big change (that is slowly developing) suddenly occurs. I think that's the way it was with me. Anyway, in what would have been the last day of the last semester, instead of going to school I packed a little bag—not many things, just the necessities—and I walked to the nearest highway. It was a highway that headed west. It was a highway that went to Seattle, and then on down to San Francisco, and from there down to the city of my dreams—Los Angeles . . . Hollywood, California.

I stuck my thumb in the air and the first truck that came by stopped. "Hi, kid, hop in. Where ya' goin'?" the driver said in a friendly tone.

"West," I said firmly. "All the way!"

SECRET FAX ON... BILL MUMY

Bill made his TV debut in Romper Room when he was only four years old.

JOE NAMATH

Joe Namath was born in Beaver Falls, Pa., on May 31, 1943. He stands six feet and two inches tall and weighs 195 pounds without his football padding. Joe is the all-star quarterback of the World Champion New York Jets—yet he has been a professional football palyer for only four years!

Joe is an all-around sportsman. He was offered a professional baseball contract before he entered college and he plays an excellent game of golf. Joe's great popularity has opened several fields to him which used to be reserved for actors and entertainers only! You can expect to see Joe in movies and TV specials soon. He just visited several American Hospital bases in the Pacific area to boost morale—and is now teaming with his favorite athlete Mickey Mantle at the American Airlines Golf Tournament in California.

Joe has appeared on the Mike Douglas Show, The Tonight Show and The Ed Sullivan Show. He's a bachelor, and he likes it that way! You can write to Joe Namath in care of the New York Jets, 595 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. (Be sure to put "I'm A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.)

JEAN-CLAUDE KILLY

Jean-Claude Killy was born on August 30, 1943, in Saint-Cloud, France. When he was still a baby, his family moved to a 17-room ski lodge in Val d'Isere, a tiny village 6,037 feet high in the French Alps. It was here that Jean-Claude learned to ski at the age of three! By the time he was 14, there were few skiers who could compete with him.

A leg injury in 1958 kept Jean-Claude out of competition until 1960, when he won three events in the French Junior Championship and was awarded a place on the French national junior skiing team. Two years of service in the French army as a truck driver in Algeria kept him off the ski slopes until 1965.

Since then Jean-Claude has won scores of prizes, including three Gold Medals at the 1968 Winter Olympics. Jean-Claude (who now has his own CBS-TV series) is a bachelor, and likes to race autos and motor bikes, go surfing and skin-diving. You can write to Jean-Claude in care of CBS-TV, Hollywood, Calif. (Be sure to put "I'm a 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.)

ANTHONY CORLAN

Anthony Corlan was born in Cork City, Ireland, on May 9, 1947. He was educated in England, but he left school at 15 to become a butcher! He worked at several odd jobs until one day he attended a weekend drama course at a place called Grendon near Northampton. The result was a scholarship to the Birmingham School of Speech and Drama for three years!

Anthony's recent appearance in ABC-TV's Journey To The Unknown, in a segment entitled A Stranger In The Family, was his introduction to American audiences. His portrayal of "Boy" (a child of the future) was fabulous! Anthony is a bachelor, girls, and you'll be seeing more of him in the pages of 16. You can write to Anthony Corlan in care of 20th Century-Fox Studios, Beverly Hills, Calif. (Be sure to put "I'm a 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.)

FRANCO NERO

Franco Nero was born on November 23, 1941, in Parma, Italy. His family (parents, one brother and three sisters) still live in Parma. Franco wanted to become an actor very early in his life and at the age of seven he appeared in school plays and studied drama. Later, he obtained a degree in business at the University of Milan.

Franco began getting small roles in pictures that led up to a starring role in Warner Brother's Camelot and the role of "Sir Lancelot".

Franco is a natural athlete and he does all of his own film stunts. He stands six feet tall and weighs 160 pounds. Franco can speak English, French and Spanish—as well as his native Italian. All this—and he sings too! You can write to Franco Nero in care of Warner Brothers Pictures, 4000 Warner Blvd., Burbank, Calif. (Be sure to put "I'm A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.)

DEAR CHER...

PARENT TROUBLE

Dear Cher,

I don't know how it started, but the other night at dinner my mother and father started putting down the Monkees, saying that they were dirty and had long hair and all that. I held my tongue as long as I could, but I'm afraid my temper got the better of me and I finally told my dad that the Monkees were clean, neat, talented young men. He insisted that all pop stars are "dirt"! Well, I yelled back at him, and then my mother got into it—and before I knew it, my father went upstairs and ripped all of my pin-ups off the wall and burned them! He told me that I couldn't read 16, play my records or listen to the radio anymore! I am so heartbroken I cry myself to sleep every night. Can you please help me? How can I make my parents understand? I am 14 years old.

TEENAGER

Scituate, R. I.

• Dear Teenager,

It may surprise you, but you're not alone in your plight. I get many, many letters from youngsters with stories such as yours. I know that it's asking a lot, but I'm going to ask you to forgive your parents. Sometimes parents of teenagers become annoyed and upset at teen pastimes because it reminds them of their own lack of freedom. What I mean is, they have grown up, gotten married, made a family and have really got a lot of responsibilities. I am sure that both your parents love you deeply, and I am equally sure that deep in their hearts they understand your teenage leisure pleasures. In a funny way, they are sort of "jealous" of your freedom and the fun you have.

The only real solution to a problem like this is for you to stay calm, behave yourself, do as well as you can in your schoolwork, keep your room clean and, generally speaking, show your parents what a "good kid" you are. After a few weeks, go to your mother and ask her if you can start listening to your records again. Tell her you're sorry that you yelled and that you would like for her, your dad and yourself to sit down and have a little talk about you and your enjoyment of teen music and 16 Magazine. I know that this sounds like a great deal of sacrifice on your part, but I will guarantee you—you can win them over this way. And I might add, it's probably the only way you can win them over. Give it a go—and best of luck!

FATTY-POO

Dear Cher,

I'm not just overweight—i'm fat! Boys don't like me, I feel sluggish at school, I have no girl friends, and the only pleasure there seems to be in my life is listening to records, reading 16 and eating! I'm only 13 years old and I don't want to stay this way! Please, please help me!

FATTY

Tampa, Fla.

• Dear Fatty,

Dry your tears and pull yourself together. Yours is a misery shared by thousands of teenagers. It's not easy for a fat girl to slim down, but it can be done. I have had to do it myself and I have seen others do it. The most important thing of all is for you to really want to lose weight and to put that number one on your list of "things to do" every day.

The first thing to do is to cut out all fats, candies, bread, spaghetti, potatoes, fried foods, soda pops—and all those foods you instinctively know are fattening. In their place, substitute fresh fruit, carrots, raisins (carry a few of those tiny boxes of raisins around in your purse to take care of those "super hungry" moments), fresh vegetables, fruit juices, diet-type sodas, jello and skimmed milk or Borden's Lite-Line milk. You can eat as much from the second group of foods as you wish—but learn to say no, no, no to the first group (and that includes pizza too, my love).

If, after a few months, you find that you simply cannot lose weight on your own, there's an absolutely fabulous magazine that'll help you get through each day on your way to "slender city"—it's called Weight Watcher's Magazine. You can get a copy of Weight Watcher's Magazine at your neighborhood newsstand for 50¢. If your newsdealer doesn't carry it, you can order the current issue by sending 75¢ (and printing clearly what you are ordering) to Weight Watcher's Magazine, Subscription Manager, 1790 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10019.

DEAR SONNY...

BITTEN BY ACTING BUG

Dear Sonny,

I am 11 years old and I want to become a famous actress someday. I think I will be very good, because ever since I was a little girl I have been very good at "pretending"—and that is what acting is, isn't it? Do you think I should finish high school, or should I forget about regular school and just set my sights on an acting career?

WOULD-BE-ACTRESS

Ft. Worth, Texas

• Dear Would-Be-Actress,

Finish high school and college too, if you have a chance! Be sure to major in dramatics! There is a lot more to becoming a famous actress than just being a good "pretender". In fact, the only time that being a good "pretender" will help you during the years of struggling most actresses go through will be the many times you will have to "pretend" that you are not hungry!

NOT INTERESTED?

Dear Sonny,

I'm 13 and I like a boy who is 14. He comes over to my house almost every night, but I don't think he likes me that much! All he talks about is cars, bikes and movies—and I don't think he's interested in girls at all! Could you give me some advice on how I can get him interested in me?

CONFUSED

Williow Grove, Pa.

• Dear Confused,

Sounds to me like you don't have much to be concerned about. Even though your friend talks about cars, bikes and movies —there is no reason for you to think that he's not interested in girls. You say he visits your house almost every night. If he wasn't interested in girls—especially you—he wouldn't be there. Boys talk about the things they know best. Show an interest in his "cars, bikes and movies" conversation—and, sooner or later, he'll be talking about you!

That's it for now. If you have a personal problem of any nature, just write to us at the address below and we will try to help you. Our address is:

HENRY MLOTT of New York City wrote Dreamsville complaining that "boys never win anything!" Oh, HENRY—how wrong you are! Just to prove it to you, Mark Lindsay (HENRY's favorite singer) stopped everything to personally autograph a large picture of himself, sent a black flamenco hat (like the one in this picture) and a plastic rose that'll last forever! Mark also sent a pocket-size transistor radio, so that HENRY won't miss the latest Raider hits! Dreamsville never fails!!

DAVY ON TOUR!

PHOTOS EXCLUSIVE TO 16 MAGAZINE BY BOB HAYES, COMPLIMENTS OF WBAM RADIO.

You never thought that Davy Jones would come to your hometown, didya? Well, that's what the kids in Montgomery and Birmingham, Alabama, thought too! But to their surprise and delight—Davy was a special guest-star host "in person" in their hometowns! So, watch your papers and listen to your radios—cos darlin' Mr. Jones may very well be comin' your way soon!!

The first show took place at the Alabama State Coliseum in Montgomery, Alabama—thanks to WBAM Radio and its groovy Program Director, Cyril Brennan.

Davy had a wonderful time—not only cos he loves singing and performing but also because he wants to grasp every opportunity to meet and chat with his fans.

The first guests Davy introduced to the crowd of 10,000 enthusiastic fans were A&M recording stars Bobby Hart and Tommy Boyce.

Then, adorable Andy Kim offered his hit songs, How'd We Ever Get This Way and Rainbow Ride.

And finally, boppin' Billy Joe Royal came on stage. The crowd went wild when he sang his latest Columbia single, The Greatest Love!

Backstage, after the show, Tommy Boyce and Bobby Hart had a chance to chat with their good buddy Davy. As you know, Tommy and Bobby wrote several of the Monkees' hits.

The next day Davy moved on to the Municipal Auditorium in Birmingham, Alabama, where he was greeted by WVOK Radio's Program Director, Dan Brennan, and deejays Hal Hodgens and Johnny Davis.

Davy again hosted a super show and 12,000 more lucky fans got to see a star-studded musical revue!

Gary Puckett and the Union Gap posed for this pic just before they went on stage—and you can bet your mini-skirt that the audience loved their performance!

After the show, a tired but happy Davy Jones spent hours signing autographs and talking with fans. How do you like his Boyce and Hart button and WVOK emblem?

Bobby Hart and Tommy Boyce appeared in this show too, and they had as much fun as Davy. Next time, let's hope that Davy comes to your home town! It could happen, ya know!

OLIVER!

JACK WILD

JACK WILD is a knockout as the "Artful Dodger" in Oliver! Jack is 15 years old and lives in Hounslow, Middlesex, England, with his mother and father. He stands four feet and seven and a half inches tall and has long, dark hair. Oliver! is Jack's first motion picture — but he has appeared in many English TV shows and commercials, and has even modeled boys' clothing. Although his mother puts most of his earnings in the bank for him, Jack still manages to buy model racing cars for his collection. He also collects coins, rocks and shells — and reads lots and lots of books. Jack is currently reading the complete works of Charles Dickens — but he likes horror stories best of all!

MARK LESTER

MARK LESTER plays "Oliver Twist" in Oliver!. He was picked from 2,000 boys who tried out for the part — and he was eight years old when the film began and nine years old when it was finished. Mark was born in Oxford, England, and began appearing in TV commercials at the age of two. He had his first movie role at five and entered dramatic school at the same time. Mark loves to swim and go boating on the river Thames. Mark is also wild about football — and Science is his favorite subject in school. He is saving his money to buy a car (as soon as he's old enough to drive one) and he has his eye set on a yellow Jaguar. He spends his "pocket money" on comic books and candy!

BEATLE & ENGLISH NEWS

FLASH! Looks like — the Beatles' long-awaited TV show (with the freaked-out foursome performing eight new tunes "live" for an invited audience) has been taped!! The show was filmed on top of the Beatle-owned Apple offices on Savile Row. A helicopter toting a TV camera hovered over the rooftop and filmed the wild goings-on while hundreds of curious passersby gathered in the street below. The crowd on the street grew so big that it caused a super-traffic jam, and the show was cut short! Lets hope the results will be available for Stateside viewing soon!! Next, the boys plan to do a documentary on how the Beatles cut a record . . . The Beatles added some more prizes to their collection too. Their animated feature, Yellow Submarine, won the New York Film Critics' "Special Animation Award," The National Society of Film Critics' "Special Animation Award," and was selected by Britain's International Film Guide as the "Best Animated Film of the Year"!

The Beatles were selected by the "Sunday Observer" as the most "influential individuals in Great Britain," and Paul McCartney was chosen as Britain's favorite Beatle by a "Daily Express" poll. . . . George Harrison has been working with Apple publicity man Derek Taylor on a stage musical based on a day at the Apple offices. It will be set in Derek's press office and it will have a story by Derek and songs by George. (By George, that's a far-out idea for a musical! Hope it gets out of the planning stage and into a theatre soon!) . . . The flock of current rumors that keep flying over from England are just that — rumors! Just for the record, gang — the Beatles are not breaking up, are not going broke and haven't had any fist fights. As Ringo say, "It's all a double-load of rubbish!" . . . Looks like George Harrison (who has grown a moustache) may follow Ringo's footsteps and have a solo fling at acting. A new movie is being prepared at Universal to co-star George and Susan Saint James . . . John Lennon and Yoko Ono have been commissioned by the state television service of Austria to make a film for Austrian TV. John will do the directing all by himself — and co-star with Yoko in the film too! . . . Speaking of John and Yoko — someone in New Jersey must be a heckuva John and Yoko fan, for 25,000 copies of the controversial Tetragrammaton LP, Two Virgins, were "collected" before they even got to the record stores!

Look for some talented new faces (and a famous jazz group) to debut on Apple Records soon. Apple recently recorded MORTIMER, a New York City trio; VERA MARIA, an 18-year-old pop singer, who hails from Czechoslovakia, and JAMES TAYLOR, an American vocalist. The second Apple LP by the MODERN JAZZ QUARTET, JACKIE LOMAX'S debut LP, and the long-awaited MARY HOPKIN LP are gonna be coming your way in March. (Don't miss the debut Apple single, Road To Nowhere, by a new Scottish group called WHITE TRASH. It's sayin' somethin'!). PAUL recently returned from a trip to Portugal. His traveling companion was N.Y. photographer LINDA EASTMAN. PAUL and LINDA have been spending lots of time together — there just might be a drastic change in PAUL'S "bachelor status" . . . PAUL's brother, MIKE McGEAR, became the proud papa of a baby girl at the end of last year. MIKE and his lovely wife ANGELA named the new arrival BENNA. (Gee, with all the success MIKE's group, the SCAFFOLD, has been having with their hit single recently, itza wonder he didn't name her "Lily The Pink")! . . . Sounds like wedding bells coming up for BEE GEE MAURICE GIBB and LULU. They officially announced their engagement at the first of the year. (You should see the beautiful sapphire ring surrounded by diamonds MAURICE slipped on LULU's finger. It's quite a "rock"!) . . . The first American appearance of a talented group, the LED ZEPPELIN, at New York's famous Filmore East was a flaming success! The high point of the evening was a 15-minute drum solo by JOHN BONHAM that almost brought down the walls. You can pick-up on the "new" sound of this super-talented group by spinning their debut LP, Led Zeppelin. It's on Atlantic Records . . . Say hello to TERRY SYLVESTER, the new member of the HOLLIES. TERRY is 22 years old, hails from Liverpool, and is replacing ex-HOLLIE GRAHAM NASH . . . Epic Recording stars MARMALADE are still high on the British pop charts with their swingin' version of the LENNON-McCARTNEY tune Ob-La-Di, Ob-La-Da. The MARMALADE can really jam! (Ouch!) . . . The FLEETWOOD MAC are flying high with their hit single Albatross on Epic Records. As of this writing, they are number one in England. . . . DEPARTURE DEPT: PETER FRAMPTON has left the HERD—but you can bet your bubble gum he'll be one of the trend-setters in the pop music scene for a long time to come. . . . That's it from bonnie Britain— ta!

A MAN WITHOUT A DREAM

(As recorded by the Monkees on Colgems Records. Lead sung by Davy Jones.)

Without the music of life my soul is out of tune,
And I feel I'm growing old much too soon.
My love for you I just couldn't convey,
And the keys to my happiness
I let slip away.

(CHORUS)
Now I'm a man without a dream.
I've got a heart that has no home.
All my senses are numb,
Losing you I've become —
A man (just a man) without a dream.

Instead of striving to reach my goals
and my aims,
I got distracted with meaningless games.
For just an illusion I traded love that was real.
Now my eyes cannot see and my heart cannot feel.

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Sometimes I think I'm a prisoner of fate,
Doomed to find out things a little too late.
And so I play this broken man's role,
Unless you come home, girl,
and bring back my soul.

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Without a dream, without a dream, without a dream.

TEAR DROP CITY

(As recorded by the Monkees on Colgems Records. Lead sung by Micky Dolenz.)

'Bout as low as I've felt in a long time,
And I know that I did her wrong
at the wrong time.
It's plain to see —
She's down on me,
And I know she'll feel that way
for a long time.

I was high on top, but I didn't know it.
Tell me why did I have to go and blow it?
I used my lines —
Too many times,
And now I've got a badly hurt heart
to show it.

Took me too long to discover —
How much I really love her.
How'd I ever end up in this bag?
What a drag!

There she goes, lookin' for greener clover.
No one knows what it's like 'til it's over.
Without a doubt —
I just found out,
And I suppose I never did get to know her.
Ah, Tear Drop City, Tear Drop City.

Took me too long to discover —
How much I really love her.
How'd I ever end up in this bag?
What a drag!

'Bout as low as I've felt in a long time,
'Bout as low as I've felt in a long time,
'Bout as low as I've felt in a long time,

L.U.V. (LET US VOTE)

(As recorded by Boyce & Hart on A & M Records)

It's been a long time gettin' here,
A change is comin' and it's very near.
A way to change things peacefully,
And live together in harmony.

(CHORUS)
Let us vote,
It's time that we all made a contribution.
Let us vote, it's the solution.
L.U.V., talkin' 'bout you and me,
Changin' things peacefully.
We're old enough — so L.U.V.

The time is now and the feelin's right,
To look at things in a better light.
We're old enough to lend a helping hand,
Together we can build a better land.

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Let us vote,
We're all in the same lifeboat.
We can help to keep it afloat,
We're old enough so let us vote.
L.U.V., talkin' 'bout you and me,
Changin' things peacefully.
We're old enough — so L.U.V.

SEATTLE (THEME FROM "HERE COME THE BRIDES")

(As recorded by Perry Como on RCA Records.)

(CHORUS)
The bluest skies you've ever seen —
in Seattle,
And the hills the greenest green —
in Seattle.
Like a beautiful child, growing up
free and wild,
Full of hopes and full of fears,
Full of laughter, full of tears,
Full of dreams to last years — in Seattle,
In Seattle.

When it's time to leave your home
And your loved ones.
It's the hardest thing a boy
Can ever do.
And you pray that you will find —
Someone warm and sweet and kind,
But you're not sure what's waiting
there for you.

(REPEAT CHORUS)

When you find your own true love,
You will know it.
By her smile, by the look in her eye.
Scent of pine trees in the air,
Never knew a day so fair,
It makes you feel so proud that you could cry.

MONKEES BACK ON TV!

Don't miss their very first TV spec — a groovy, glorious, eye - poppin', pulse - poundin', hour-long extravaganza in stupefyin' color! Plus guest stars and super surprises that'll blow your mind!!

WOW—here come the Monkees as you've never seen them before—in their very own hour-long, color TV spec—33 ⅓ Revolutions Per Monkee!! Itza don't miss, so be sure to tune in your tellies to NBC-TV on Monday, April 14th, from 8 to 9 P.M. (EDT) and join in the hysterical happenings! But for right now, here's a sneak preview of the show!!

It all begins when a group (The Monkees) is conjured up and brainwashed by a mad professor (played by Brian Auger).

The four boys escape their test tubes only to become wind-up dolls—but they are not trapped for long!

"Woman" (played by Julie Driscoll) persuades them to use their own minds and think for themselves.

As you know, Peter Tork does appear in the spec—but it's the last time you can see him as a Monkee!

Mickey Dolenz (who also duets with Julie Driscoll) sings a new arrangement of I'm A Believer.

And Mike Nesmith introduces a brand new tune entitled Listen To The Band. But that's not all!

Davy Jones dances with a "real live" rag doll in a fabulous nursery scene!

Don't worry—Davy sings too! And wait till you see him in his "little boy outfit"!

In addition to Davy's playmates in this picture, the Monkees welcome many guest stars, including Julie Driscoll and the Brian Auger Trinity, Buddy Miles Express—and all-time greats Fats Domino, Little Richard and Jerry Lee Lewis!

But—the Monkees have lots of secret surprises in store for you! It's their very first TV spec and Mike, Peter, Davy and Micky are counting on you to be there!!

GEEGEE'S GOSSIP!!!

DYNAMIC, dashing DAVY JONES is really stopping traffic TV-wise these days. Hope you caught his stunning guest appearances in NBC-TVs Laugh-In, ABC-TV's Tom Jones Show, CBS-TV's Glen Campbell Show (he and the MONKEES did two of these) and ABC-TV's flashy new Turn-On. All this plus the MONKEES' own marvelous NBC-TV spec, which is scheduled for April 14th from 8 to 9 P.M. (EDT). (For more on the MONKEES' TV spec, turn to Page 30.) DAVY's wit, charm and skill as a singer and dancer have endured him to even a greater audience than he knew as "king" of the MONKEES. And the whispers along Sunset Strip are that one day DAVY is going to go out on his own — and that when he does, there will be no stopping him! He's really going to go all the way to top stardom!! . . . After finishing their TV and recording commitments, DAVY, MIKE and MICKY (as you know, PETER is no longer a MONKEE) begin work on a tour of major U.S. cities. Scheduled so far are Honolulu, San Francisco, Phoenix and Fort Worth. No dates set yet, but keep watchin 16 for the good news!

Epic's TERRY REID (one of those beautiful British boys) continues to draw stand-up ovations wherever he appears Stateside . . . Cutest IRON BUTTERFLY, 18-year-old ERIK BRANN, is not only an astute musician but is also a writer and an actor . . . Biggest Christmas card ever received by 16 came from the GRASSROOTS. It was hand-made "especially for Gloria" from WARREN, RICKEY, CREED and ROB! . . . Canada's MICHEL GIROUARD welcomed OLIVIA HUSSEY and LEN WHITING to Montreal TV when they were visiting there to promote Romeo & Juliet. MICHEL presented OLIVIA and LEN with "ookpiks" — a traditional Canadian souvenir gift . . . HOSS AMANS, former road manager of the RAIDERS and the NAZZ, has opened his own discotheque in Spokane, Washington. It's called THE BOSS HOSS and it's at 915 W. Sprauge in Spokane. THE BOSS HOSS will feature pop, jazz, folk and psychedelic groups — new ones and established ones. There's a big dance floor and room for all. Don't miss!

CHRIS CROSBY is back — and Columbia Records has got him! Be sure to pick up his single Atlanta, Georgia, U.S.A./ If That's The Way You Feel. The latter was written and arranged by the NAZZ . . . ELVIS PRESLEY decided to go back home to cut his records from now on. He just finished cutting 16 tunes in a studio in Memphis. "This is where it all started," he said. "It feels good to be back in Memphis, recording again." Out of the session will come one LP and two singles . . . It was erroneously printed in 16 SPEC that BOB DYLAN recorded I Shall Be Released on Columbia. Fact is, BOB wrote it and recorded it on a demo, then placed it on the market for sale to other artists. So far, I Shall Be Released has been recorded by THE BAND, BLACK VELVET, JACKIE DE SHANNON, the BOX TOPS, MIRIAM MAKEBA, JOAN BAEZ, the COVEN, BROTHERS SOUL, PETER, PAUL & MARY, the TREMELOES, WRITING ON THE WALL, and HAMILTON CAMP . . . Look-alikes MARK LINDSAY and KEITH ALLISON not only collaborated on Free Born Man (recorded by GLEN CAMPBELL and sung on his Glen Campbell Goodtime Hour TV show), but MARK and KEITH also co-wrote several songs on the RAIDERS' newest LP Hard And Heavy With Marshmallow. HERE'S A FLASH: MARK will probably cut an LP on his own!! It will be called Mark Lindsay Sings Love Ballads. He'll be backed by the RAIDERS . . . BOBBY SHERMAN'S first single will be on Metromedia Records.

FLASH OF THE MONTH!!

By the time you read this, Sajid Khan's first LP — it's on Colgems, of course — should be in the stores! It's simply called "Sajid." It's super-groovy — and if you look carefully, you'll see that the notes on the back were written by none other than Gloria Stavers. Hope you caught Sajid's "Big Valley" segment on March 3rd (for more about that, see Page 60). As a result of Sajid's brilliant performance, ABC-TV's "Big Valley" may be renewed — and Sajid may become a regular on the show! "My Secret Wedding" by BOBBY SHERMAN

GIRLS THINK that most guys never dream about getting married. Perhaps you girls have gotten this idea over the years because, generally speaking, boys don't talk much about marriage, or wedding plans, or honeymoons and all that. Well, I'm going to let you in on a little secret. Believe me, we guys do think about marriage very often — and each and every one of us has (hidden in the back of his mind and usually held there by locked and sealed lips) his own particular idea of how he would like his wedding to be.

SATIN AND LACE

When I first began to think about girls, which was only when I was about four years old, I wondered what it would be like to have a girl for my very own. At the time, I was addicted to fairy tales and daydreams—but after a few years I found myself visualizing what it would be like when I got married. In my dreams, my wedding was a "royal" wedding. Somewhere along the line (I don't know exactly how) I became a prince—at least, I was a prince in my imagination. I had a very clear picture (sort of like a movie in my head) of exactly what my wedding would be like.

It would take place in an enormous cathedral. Using my imagination, I arrive at the ceremony on a beautiful white horse. I am wearing the splendid regalia of a young prince—including a golden crown on my head! From the cathedral comes the sound of a choir singing and an organ playing. Since my "dream wedding" has nothing to do with the proprieties of reality, I stand expectantly awaiting my "bride". Soon a golden coach, drawn by six silver-liveried horses with plumes in their manes, approaches the cathedral. A red carpet is rolled out and the ladies-in-waiting thrust open the doors. And suddenly there you are — more beautiful than I ever dreamt you could be!

You are wearing an ivory, satin, lace and brocade gown. Your hair falls loosely about your shoulders and on your head is a tiny tiara of white flowers. You are holding a bouquet of pure white roses and, as you walk toward me, your long lace veil and satin train float behind you. I step forward and tenderly take your hand. I tuck your arm in mine. We look deeply into each other's eyes and I lead you into the cathedral. As we enter, the music swells. Hundreds and hundreds of candles shed their light on your joyous face. All along our path, relatives, friends, teachers, school chums—everyone we know, turns and smiles at us in our greatest moment of happiness. Soon, I slip a hand-carved, golden band, encrusted with emeralds and rubies, on the third finger of your left hand. . . .

It's funny, but somewhere about there my dream began to fade. Years later, when I saw the wedding of Arthur and Guinevere in Camelot, it all flashed back to me—as vivid as it was when I was a young boy and daydreamed of my "royal wedding"!

A SIMPLE CEREMONY

As the years went by, my idea of the perfect wedding changed. (Don't misunderstand; my feeling for girls never changed—except that it kept increasing!) But by the time I was in high school, my personality had changed. Although I had always been an outgoing, friendly sort of person, I acquired a sense of "privacy". I guess it's better said this way—the precious things, the cherished things, the things we most want to preserve are the things that require care and a certain amount of privacy. When I realized this, my conception of the ideal wedding completely changed.

Now, the perfect wedding seemed to me to be a simple, quiet, "family" sort of ceremony. I could picture a kind of rustic atmosphere, maybe a house off in the country or in the suburbs. It would either be my house or your house. We would meet there quietly in the early afternoon. As I came in, you would greet me at the door, wearing your (and my) favorite "party dress"—a dress that made you even more beautiful. Our families would be there and we would have a warm, happy pre-wedding toast with them.

As our wedding ceremony is about to begin, someone quietly plays our favorite song on the piano in a corner of the living-room, and we walk slowly toward the improvised altar, banked with bouquets of wild roses, daisies and carnations. There are tears in your mom's eyes and I can see my folks blinking back tears too. But they are tears of joy. As we repeat the beautiful, meaningful words of the ceremony, which unites us forever, we look deep into each other's eyes—eyes filled with love, tenderness and longing. When we exchange our engraved, golden wedding bands, I don't let your hand go. And when I kiss you, it isn't brief—but for a long time.

After the wedding we have the intimate, joyous kind of celebration you can have only with your family and truest friends. We cut the cake, smile happily while we are toasted as the bride and groom, and then we toast everyone else. Soon there is music and dancing, and as I take you in my arms and sweep you around the room, I sing these words softly into your ear—"More than you'll ever know, my heart longs to hold you so . . ."

MY SECRET WEDDING

Looking back now, all that seems very long ago. My, how times have changed! My life these days is a busy whirl and I've very little time for the beautiful daydreams I used to indulge in. But I still think of getting married one day. And I still picture just how I would like the wedding to be. But my present "perfect wedding" is totally unlike either of the two ceremonies I described. You see, if I got married now—I would get married secretly!

Before you say, "Oh, that's wrong—you shouldn't hide anything!" or "Why keep it a secret—are you worried about your fans?"—let me explain. If and when I get married, I would like to keep my wedding a secret for a few months. As I said before, I am busy nearly all of the time now. But aside from that, I am, in a sense, a public figure. Someone always knows where I am. Most of the time I'm either on the set, in the studio, doing public appearances, rehearsing my lines, being interviewed or photographed, visiting my folks or—seldom though it is—home alone relaxing.

Because of the nature of my work and the "building" stage my career is in, it is imperative that my manager, my record producer and Screen Gems' press department know where I am at all times. Believe me, I am grateful that I am finally making it as a TV star and singer. But as you know and understand, a guy needs to be alone with his girl once in awhile. In fact, if he can't have that sometimes—he may not be able to do all of the other things that are required of him!

"Our secret wedding would be, for us, the purest kind of wedding of all — for we would be sharing, just the two of us, the most important moment of our lives."

To be alone with "my girl" (I don't mean to imply that I have one, but I am hoping that she will come along one day) would necessarily require that I actually hide from the "work day" people who are (quite properly) so demanding on my time. So, as I conceive it now, my dream wedding would be very, very secret—very, very private. In fact, no one would know about it but you, me, our folks and the county clerk!

Actually, our secret wedding would be, for us, the purest kind of wedding of all—for we would be sharing, just the two of us, the most important moment of our lives. That moment would be ours and ours alone to remember together forever! The simple golden bands we would excange would be, for a while, hidden from the public eye. I would always carry mine in my pocket, and you would wear yours on a long golden chain around your neck. You would be the patient, kind and understanding girl who would become the sun and the moon in my busy life. Through the day I would work, smile, sing, act, do my job (things I truly love to do), but when the sun began to set I would vanish from the noise and hubbub of the Hollywood scene. My silver Rolls Royce would slowly wind its way up an isolated road in the Hollywood Hills until I came to a little cottage half hidden from the world by a white fence covered with flowery vines!

When I opened the door, you would be there, smiling—waiting lovingly for me. And we would share glorious secret evenings, night after night, free to be alone together, free to truly belong to each other—until the day we decided to let our sweet secret become known to the world. But until then, we would have a tranquil, inviolate and precious privacy which would always be the foundation of our long and happy marriage.

What was your very first ambition?
I wanted to be an ocean biologist—honest!

MISS 16-twice a star

HOW WOULD YOU like to be the star of a float in the Orange Bowl Parade in Miami — and again in the Tournament Of Roses Parade in Los Angeles? How would you like to be cheered and applauded by more than 50,000 people lining the sidewalks — and admired and envied by over 42,000,000 additional viewers watching on nationwide television?!

It happened to Christie Lee Jensen of Seattle, Washington — whom you saw crowned the new Miss 16 Of North America on American Bandstand not so long ago! And it could happen to YOU!! (Ask Christie! A year ago she hadn't even thought of entering the Miss 16 Contest — and now she's Miss 16! So don't miss the announcement and the details of the new Miss 16 Contest! They'll soon be printed in a forthcoming issue of 16 Magazine!)

As Miss 16 Of North America, Christie was the first girl ever to be featured in both the Orange Bowl and the Tournament Of Roses Parades. As you can imagine, she had a tremendously exciting time. After she was crowned Miss 16, Christie visited New York City (where, among other things, she was observed dancing at El Morocco with recording star Bobby Bruce), then flew to Miami and enjoyed the sun, sand and surf of Miami Beach — and then climbed aboard her float for a thrilling trip through Miami's streets on New Year's Eve in the Orange Bowl Parade.

No sooner was her part in the parade finished than 16's little helpers rushed Christie to her hotel, where she quickly changed into a cowgirl costume, and then dashed with Christie to the airport and a waiting National Airlines jet — where, with the special VIP attentions of the National staff, she was whisked to Los Angeles at daybreak and to Pasadena just in time to mount the Phoenix, Arizona, float for the Tournament Of Roses Parade on New Year's Day!!

Yes, that's how Christie Lee Jensen, Miss 16, officially began her reign — an 8 P.M. star in Miami and an 8 A.M. star in California! And remember: it could happen to YOU!!

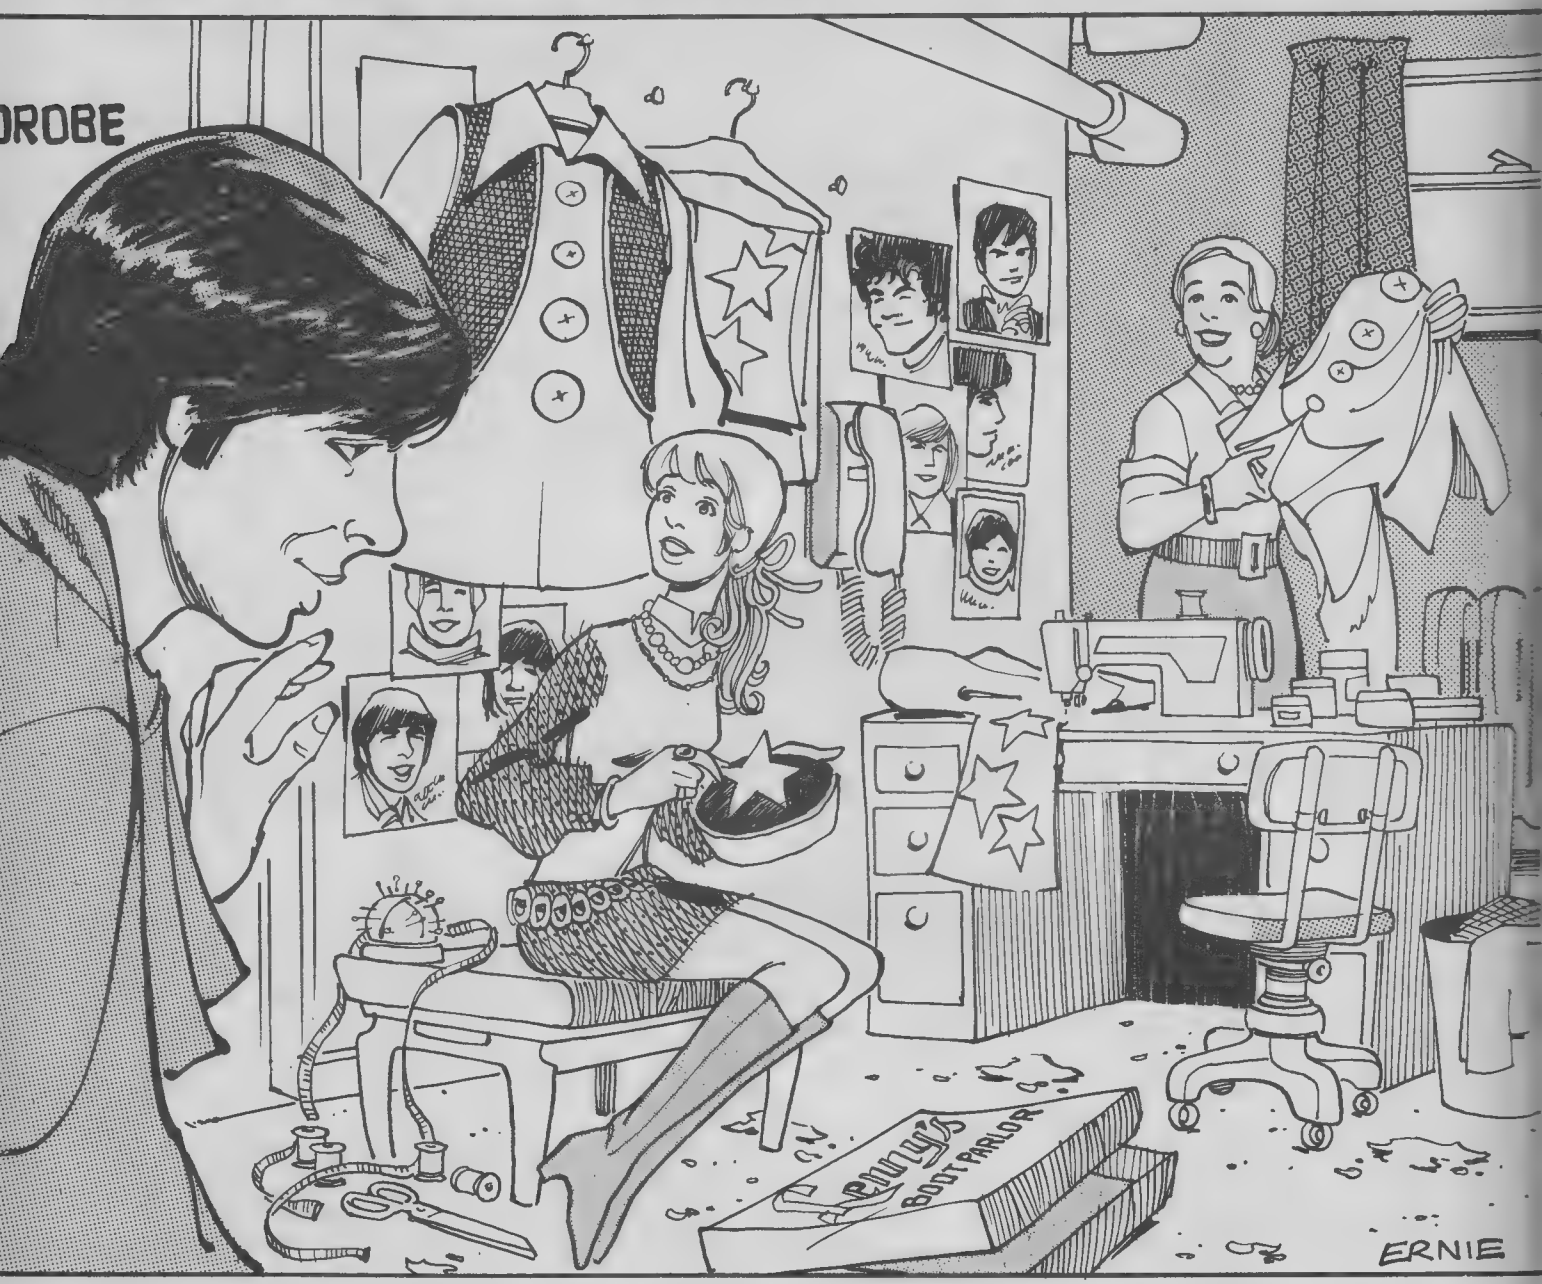
CEECEE IN HOLLYWOOD

SYNOPSIS: After she discovered adoption papers with her name on them hidden in the attic, Ceecee Bennett, in a wave of depression and anxiety, took her life savings and boarded a plane for Los Angeles. In Hollywood, at the Copper Skillet — a fav hangout for teen stars — Ceecee meets her "guardian angel" Aunt Tillie. After she sees Mark Lindsay and meets Davy Jones, Tillie invites "homeless" Ceecee to come along and sleep on her living room couch.



When Ceecee opened her eyes, the sunlight was streaming through the window. "Hey," said Aunt Tillie, who was standing in the doorway with two cups of steaming tea, "let's go! You're my new assistant in the Screen Gems Wardrobe Department, remember?"

On the way to Screen Gems, Tillie turned to Ceecee and said, "By the way, what's your name?" Ceecee felt her hands grow cold and clammy as the color rose to her face. "Oh, it's no big thing," Tillie added casually. "Just that I might have to introduce you to some of the kids at work."

After a moment, Ceecee said, "Jones — that's my last name. I'm Ceecee Jones."

Tillie looked puzzled for a moment, then she smiled and said, "That's a nice name. Some of my best friends are named Jones."

Wardrobe was a fascinating and busy place, with lots of people quietly at work and hundreds of costumes hanging on racks all about. "I'll show you around later," Tillie said, "but we'd better get to work. You sit near me and sew this star on this cap while I stitch up these costumes for the Monkees to wear on their TV spec."

Ceecee tried to stay calm as she sewed, but she almost missed a stitch when her eye caught the label inside the hat. It said "Mike Nesmith." She wanted to ask Tillie a thousand questions, but she decided to keep quiet. But keeping quiet turned out to be impossible — for just as she became engrossed in her work, a figure appeared in the doorway. It was Davy Jones!

"Hi, remember me?" he asked in his adorable English accent.

"Sure do, Davy," Tillie said quickly. "This is my—er—niece Ceecee. Her name is Jones too."

Davy grinned. "Ceecee Jones. That's a nice name — and if you're not busy at lunchtime, how about coming along with me?"

Before Ceecee could answer, two more familiar faces appeared in the workroom: Mike Nesmith and Micky Dolenz!

"Hi, Tillie," Micky grinned. "Can we see the things?"

"Sure, we're almost finished," Tillie replied.

As the Monkees started clowning around, trying on their new shirts and vests, it was all that Ceecee could do to keep her equilibrium. A part of her wanted to jump up and down screaming with delight, but another part of her knew that it was best to keep on with her work and to conduct herself in a ladylike manner. Just as she finished the last stitch, Mike leaned over and said, "Hey, that's my hat, isn't it?"

She handed it to him, smiling happily.

Mike put the hat on, and all at once the three boys went into a funny little song and dance routine. "This is just like we do it on the show," Davy said, jumping around — and Ceecee and Tillie couldn't control their laughter!

Finally, Tillie said, "O.K., boys, that's enough. I don't want to have to sew all the costumes back together again! Besides, it's time for lunch."

Mike and Micky drifted off, and Davy leaned against the doorway. Ceecee looked at Tillie imploringly—not knowing what to do. As usual, Tillie did the right thing.

"You two hop on off to the commissary," she said. "I've got some odds and ends to clear up here and then I'll have a sandwich with Gene, my boss. We've got to talk about the rest of these costumes."

As they walked across the Screen Gems lot toward the snack bar, Ceecee felt herself beginning to panic. Her mind was a complete blank and, being a basically shy girl, she found it impossible to think of anything to say. But she needn't have worried, for Davy's naturalness and spontaneity dispelled all of her self doubts.

"Tillie never told me that she had a niece," Davy began. "I'm sure glad you're visiting her. I hope you stay on a long time. She's a wonderful lady, but I think she gets lonely sometimes. Well, not anymore — now that she has you."

The sudden knowledge that she was needed and wanted made Ceecee feel warm and wonderful — almost as though she were at "home."

At lunch, Davy seemed to know all the little questions that were running through Ceecee's mind. "Guess you know that Peter left the group," he said. "He's going to be in the TV spec, but after that he'll be Peter Tork — no longer a Monkee. Mike, Micky and I will be the Monkees — and Peter will do his own thing. We're all still the best of friends. In fact, we'll probably help Pete on his recording sessions, if he wants us to."

Later, Davy explained, "I have decided to live in America permanently." He looked down and said softly, "I lost my dad last year and — well, now America, actually Hollywood, is my home."

Ceecee had to turn her eyes away as she felt tears rising in them. All at once, she could see her own "mom" and "dad" and her little "brother" Timmy. Even though seeing those adoption papers had torn her heart out and upset her so badly that she had found herself running, running far away — she still felt deep down inside that they really were her family. But . . .

"Hey," Davy said. "What's wrong? You can tell me. Listen, I won't tell anybody, not even Tillie. If you've got something on your mind, the best thing to do is talk it over with a friend." He reached out and gently held her hand. "And I want to be your friend, Ceecee."

Suddenly Ceecee became overwhelmed by her pent-up emotion. She found herself quietly telling Davy the story of her life back home — and of that day in the attic when she had discovered the adoption papers hidden away in a little box. When she had finished, Davy looked at her for a long time. Finally, he said, "I know how you feel." He paused — then continued, "I know how hard it must have been for you. I'm not going to give you a lecture, but I want you to think this over: In truth, those people really are your parents. They are more real than anyone else in your life. Besides, you don't know the whole story. It seems to me there's a piece missing somewhere."

Then Davy was smiling again. "Hey," he said, "lift that chin up and give me a grin! It's time for you to go back to work. Don't brood and be sad. Just think about it when you have time. It's all a little too much for you right now. You're safe and you're happy — and I'm sure you'll do the right thing when the time comes. But do think about it, Ceecee. Promise?"

Ceecee smiled gratefully across at the adorable face looking into hers. "Yes, Davy, I promise."

"Now, lets get going," Davy said, jumping up and taking her hand.

As they hurried back across the TV lot toward Wardrobe, Davy abruptly stopped. "Well, well — look who's coming! No — close your eyes, Ceecee! Don't open them until I tell you to! I'm going to introduce you to a friend of mine!"

Ceecee closed her eyes tightly — and once again she had that feeling of mounting excitement.

"Hi," she heard Davy say.

"Hello, there, Davy," a very familiar-sounding voice responded — but try as she did, Ceecee couldn't quite place it.

"I want you to meet a friend of mine," Davy said. "O.K., Ceecee, you can open your eyes now. Say 'hello' to Bobby Sherman!"

Ceecee opened her amazed eyes to find them looking directly into Bobby Sherman's twinkling, brilliant blue eyes. She stood there staring — utterly speechless!

"This is Ceecee Jones," Davy said. "Before you ask — nope, she's not my sister. She's my new best friend — a regular, sweet and sincere girl-type girl."

"They don't make many of those anymore," Bobby said — and as he reached out and shook Ceecee's hand, she felt her heart melt.

Ceecee was still in a daze as the three of them walked back to Wardrobe. Later, all she could remember was Davy and Bobby saying, "We both have fittings this afternoon for outfits for shows, so we'll see you later, Ceecee."

And then Davy had shouted over his shoulder, "Don't make any plans for tonight, Ceecee — Bobby and I have a surprise for you!"

What do Davy and Bobby have in mind, What other miraculous Hollywood adventures await Ceecee? Join the excitement again next month! It'll all be in the June issue of 16, which goes on sale April 22!! Reserve your copy now!!

10 eye-poppin' fax about ENZO Cerusico

Enzo started acting at the age of eight. He appeared in parochial school dramas about the lives of saints and other Biblical figures.

Enzo has a brother, Nazzareno, who is a practicing physician in Rome, Italy.

When Enzo was 15, he was signed for a small part in a movie starring Gina Lollobrigida and Vittorio De Sica.

When he was 19, he was among 300 young men and women chosen by top Italian film-makers to attend a theatrical research school.

During the second year at the theatrical research school, only ten of the original 300 were selected to continue their studies. Enzo was one of them.

Enzo was chosen from among more than 50 hopeful young actors by Sheldon Leonard for a role in an episode of I Spy.

He played the part of "Gino" in the I Spy episode titled Sophia.

Enzo arrived in Hollywood in 1967 to make the pilot film for My Friend Tony.

When he began work on My Friend Tony, a great deal of his time was spent learning English. He could hardly speak a word of it!

Enzo lives in a modern Hollywood apartment with his attractive wife Tiziana.

SING-ALONG with MARK SLADE

MARK SLADE is a fine actor, a talented ventriloquist, a clever cartoonist — and now he's a swingin' singer as well! Multi-talented Mark dropped in on New York City to record his very first LP, Mark Slade's New Hat, for Tetragrammaton Records — and he invites you to come along!!

All photos by Steve De Naut. World copyright 16 Magazine, Inc.

Hi! This leather hat I'm wearing was the inspiration for the title to my first LP. I'm wild about it! Making my first record is sure exciting — and almost all of the songs I'm going to sing are as new as my hat!

The singing group that backs me on most of the songs is called the Bunkhouse Gang. One of the songs I'm going to do is named A Theme For Billy Blue — and it's the same tune you hear on High Chaparral. Here goes!

Here comes the moment I've been waiting for — listening to the playback! While I take a moment or two to be my own critic, why don't you take a look at two of the songs from my album — and sing along!

MRS. BEARDSLEY SMITH

(As recorded by Mark Slade on Tetragrammaton Records.)

(CHORUS)
Mrs. Beardsley Smith,
The conscience of this city,
A woman with no pity,
Mrs. Beardsley Smith.

When the Coopers came to town,
Mrs. Beardsley Smith came around.
Looked at Mrs. Cooper's 42-24-36
and frowned,
She said, "A woman lookin' like you,
Has got to be no good!
So save yourself some trouble,
And get out of this neighborhood!"

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Before the local libary
Puts a new book on the shelf,
Mrs. Beardsley Smith always reads
the book herself.
And if she thinks it's obscene,
The local papers will hear,
And she'll bug the church committee —
Makin' sure the book will disappear.

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Mrs. Beardsley Smith's neighbor,
Mrs. Huntley Morgan the third,
Just checked and found there was truth,
To a rumor she once heard.
Seven years ago Mrs. Smith
left Memphis in a rush,
For runnin' the kind of place —
That made the gentle people blush.

Mrs. Beardsley Smith,
The conscience of this city,
How does it feel to get no pity?
Mrs. Beardsley Smith.

DON'T WALK IN MY FOOTSTEPS

(As recorded by Mark Slade on Tetragrammaton Records.)

My life's a wandering pattern,
Woven in paths that never will end.
My philosophy is to live ten lives,
Before it's over, my friend.
I don't know all the answers,
I've no ambition you see.
So please don't walk in my footsteps,
They're goin' backwards following me.

To someone just startin' out life,
I may appear to be an ideal.
But as years roll by I'll have nothin' to show,
Nothin' steady or real.
I don't say I don't like it,
These ways so aimlessly free,
But please don't walk in my footsteps,
They're goin' backwards following me.

The summer brings me her golden days,
But winter brings her cold nights.
I've known the loneliness and depression,
But there's also laughter and lights.
I can take it now while I'm young,
What happens when I'm 53?
So please don't walk in my footsteps,
They're goin' backwards following me.

THE WHOLE TRUE STORY OF

DARK SHADOWS

CHAPTER FOUR

A big, fat "16 thanks" to the following for help and information: Flo Rita Fairfield, Fisher, Illinois; Nancy Burton, Chicago, Illinois; Rob Harvey, West Hampton, Maine; Linda La Spino, East Setauket, New York; J. Frances Banks, Cleveland, Ohio; Cheree Townsend, Forney, Texas; Eugenia Cox, Macon, Georgia; Irene Traina, Tampa, Florida; and Sharon Tyler, Kings Park, New York.

SETTING THE "RECORD" STRAIGHT!

We interrupt our swinging Dark Shadows' Whole True Story series to fill you in on a few of the show's past details. These are important facts and events which were either forgotten or overlooked by Dan Curtis (co-producer of Dark Shadows*) when he gave* 16 the full story of DS — as he remembers it! As you know, recalling the complete DS saga from beginning to end is rather a feat. But since so very many of you groovy 16*-ers are mad, mad,* mad for Dark Shadows, and since so many of you were good enough to write long and lovely letters full of helpful remembrances and tips on the DS gang — 16 is interrupting the Dark Shadows series to make sure that each and every one of you has the record straight on The Whole True Story Of Dark Shadows! Next month we will resume the story of the show where we left off in the April issue — at about the time that Barnabas meets Drs. Hoffman and Lang. So be sure to tune in!

"IN THE PAST"

Angelique (played by Lara Parker) was born in 1774 on the island of Martinique. All of the things in the past concerning Barnabas (Jonathan Frid), Josette and Angelique happened before 1795 — as Josette died in 1795.

Barnabas went to Martinique, met Josette and fell in love with her. However, for one brief night Josette's serving maid, Angelique, caused Barnabas to have mixed emotions. By the time he realized that he loved only Josette, alas, Angelique had fallen hopelessly in love with Barnabas — and she was determined to get him for her very own! Later, Angelique (who was a witch) put a spell on Josette, causing her affections — on the eve of her wedding to Barnabas — to switch from Barnabas to Jeremiah (Barnabas' young uncle, who Barnabas later challenged to a pistol duel and killed).

Barnabas had a little sister named Sarah, whom Angelique caused to become critically ill. Then Angelique said that she knew how to cure Sarah. Barnabas went to Angelique and begged her to make Sarah well. Angelique told him that she would if Barnabas would marry her. Barnabas was so distraught over the condition of his little sister that he agreed. Later, he tried diplomatically to back out of the marriage, but Angelique made him keep his promise by casting a spell on him. When Barnabas discovered that Angelique was a witch, he despised her.

Ultimately, Josette ended her life by falling from Widow's Hill, but before that Barnabas (with the help of the ghost of Uncle Jeremiah) shot and strangled Angelique. Before she died, Angelique put the curse of the vampire on Barnabas by having a bat bite him.

After Angelique put the vampire curse on Barnabas, his father discovered what had happened and placed his son in a coffin, laid a cross upon his chest, closed the coffiin and chained it — hoping to keep the tragic secret locked up forever.

When Vicki went into the past, she was accused of the witchcraft actually performed by Angelique and was sentenced to be hanged for it (she escaped when another girl was hanged in her place). In the past, Vicki met a man named Peter Bradford (Roger Davis) who — upon her return to the present — was reincarnated as Jeff Clark (Roger Davis). When Vicki returned to the present, she brought with her a painting of a woman. It turned out that this was a painting of Angelique — and that Angelique's spirit was still in the painting! Every time Roger Collins went near the painting, it had a strange effect on him. One night, Roger took the picture and left the house. When he returned the following night with his bride (David's stepmother), she turned out to be Cassandra — who actually was Angelique in disguise.

IN THE PRESENT

In the beginning of DS, Vicki came to Collinwood as governess because she thought that she might be related to a family in Maine. As an orphan, she had received an anonymous check once a month from someone in Bangor and she was anxious to find out who her "benefactor" was. She accepted the job in Collinsport because it was near Bangor. The first person Vicki met in Collinsport was Maggie (Kathryn Leigh Scott), a waitress in a dinette.

Matthew Morgan, the Collinwood caretaker (this was the first Dark Shadows role played by Thayer David), was an unbalanced person and at one point tried to chop off Vicki's head with an ax. Before he could carry out his act, he was frightened to death by "spirits of the widows" — Josette's supernatural forces — and by the ghost of Bill Malloy. Bill Malloy had been murdered by Matthew because Bill had witnessed an accident when Roger was driving his car and killed someone. Roger evaded the consequences of his deed and Burke Devlin, who was in the car, was accused of murder and served ten years in prison.

David Collins (David Henesy) talked to Josette's ghost, but never to Barnabas' ghost. This was because Barnabas was only partly dead. The portrait of Barnabas (as he looked in 1795) never hung in the old house. It has always hung in the present Collinwood. The picture of Barnabas now hanging in the old house was painted by Sam Evans. Barnabas had this portrait of himself painted so that it could be hung beside the portrait of Josette in Josette's room in the old house. Barnabas incurred David Collins' wrath when he moved Josette's portrait from the drawing-room to the bedroom in the old house.

It is doubtful that Vicki is Josette's reincarnation, because Vicki's and Josette's spirit actually exist simultaneously in the past and present.

Chris Jennings is Tom Jennings' twin brother (both roles played by Don Briscoe). Tom, who was made into a vampire, was destroyed, and Chris (at least, at press time) bears the curse of the werewolf. Amy Jennings (played by Denise Nickerson) is the younger sister of Tom and Chris.

MEET DAVID SELBY

HI! I'm David Selby. You've seen me in Dark Shadows as the villainous "Quentin"— but I'm not that sort at all in real life. I was born in Morgantown, West Virginia, on February, 5th, and I am now in my twenties. I am six feet and two inches tall and I have dark brown hair and blue eyes. I live with my wife (we have been married for five years) in a big, rambling apartment on the west side of New York City. It is really fun playing the role of "Quentin" (even though he's a rather terrible fellow), and I hope I'll be around Dark Shadows for a long time (unless little David does me in!).

You can write to David Selby, Jonathan Frid, Don Briscoe, David Henesy, Denise Nickerson and all the rest of the Dark Shadows gang in care of 16 Magazine, 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

SAJID PRESENTS –

*And 16 gives you an "instant replay" of his spectacular appearance in ABC-TV's The Big Valley!

HEIGH-HO, WHATSISNAME!! Yep, it's me, Prince (?) Sajid Khan of India — riding the range straight to ABC-TV's The Big Valley! Actually, it all took place on ABC-TV on Monday, March 3rd. I hope you saw my segment called "The Royal Road" in The Big Valley — but in case you missed it, here's a quick replay.

I arrive at the Barkley ranch, telling them that I am a real Oriental Prince!

All of that, of course, calls for a quick change — so your boy Saj slips out of his Eastern gear and into his Western gear!

How do you like it? Not quite Lenny's Boot Parlor — but it'll do!

INDIANS & COWBOYS!

I have a little trouble convincing the Barkleys —

so I whip out my trusty old sitar!

Well, I'm not very convincing — I sound more Western than Eastern.

Here I am back where I started from — but I don't ride off into the sunset! In fact, chances are I'll be a regular on ABC-TV's The Big Valley next fall!!

LO-DOWN por LA GATITA

Riddles of the Month: What top teen idol of what top pop group is secretly married? . . . What very handsome top pop-TV star brought his girl friend home to tell his mom they were getting married — and (luckily for him and for all of us) his mom vetoed any such merger anytime soon?

Mike Vincent is on location in Mexico, shooting the movie The Undefeated with John Wayne and Rock Hudson for 20th . . . Stephen Young is also starring in a movie for 20th. It's called Patton—Blood And Guts and it's based on the exploits of that famous general in the Second World War . . . Brendon Boone has opened his own movie production company — Brenmar Productions. The first property he has purchased is called The Powerful Pussycat's Sick Lion. Meanwhile, Brendon won the coveted "Blue Boy" role in the above-mentioned The Undefeated . . . Don't miss young Chris Shea in Walt Disney's Smith!. It'll be in your neighborhood theatre early in April . . . And here's the best movie news of all: If your junior high, high school or college would like to rent the Beatles' color TV special Magical Mystery Tour for showing at your school (or anyplace else, for that), have someone with authority write to Mr. Nathan Weiss, "Magical Mystery Tour", Nemperor Artists, 1501 Broadway, New York, N. Y. — to get rental prices and other details.

SUPER FLASH! MICKY AND SAMMY DOLENZ ANNOUNCE THE BIRTH OF THEIR DAUGHTER AMI BLUEBELL! AMI WAS BORN IN ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL IN BURBANK, CALIF., AT 7:05 P.M. ON JANUARY 8TH! SHE WEIGHED IN AT SIX POUNDS, 13 OUNCES. CONGRATS TO MICK AND SAMMY — AND WELCOME TO OUR WORLD, AMI!

Beautiful "Bride" Bridget Hanley is taking the leap for real. She's marrying Screen Gems executive Ed Swackhamer. The groom has directed several Here Come The Brides segments and he and Bridget have known each other for several years . . . When John Davidson opened at the plush Persian Room in New York City, the audience was delightfully surprised by his "co-star" — his new bride Jackie Miller (formerly of Jackie & Gayle) . . . Spanky McFarland (of Spanky & Our Gang) married Madison Charlie (road manager of the Turtles) in December at the Miami Pop Festival. Wedding guests included the Turtles, Tiny Tim and Ritchie Havens . . . Robert Walker, Jr. and his wife, actress-dancer Eleanor Wood, are also amongst Hollywood's new proud parents. Their son was born December 18th . . . Brenda Lee's second child — a girl, Jolie Lenee — was born on January 21st in Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville. Her hubby is a non-pro-handsome Ronnie Shacklett . . . Mark and Linda Slade expect their first-born just about the time you read this! So do Sonny & Cher.

Raider Joe, Jr. does NOT have a big, black moustache! He wore one for awhile (including the Raiders' color picture on their last single record Mr. Sun Mr. Moon) as a gag. In real life, Joe is as cute and as clean-shaven as ever. Speaking of the Raiders, they are now doing commercials for Pontiac on TV and on radio. At press time, It's Happening was definitely renewed through early April. The Raiders will do another big concert tour all over America this summer. Watch 16 for the dates and locations! . . . Dashing Don Scardino, who stars in 20th's NBC-TV series pilot The Flim Flam Man, also wrote and recorded the theme song for that projected series . . . Olivia Hussey has broken up with her boy friend, French musician Alan Jack . . .

Beautiful Joe Butler has established his theatrical worth by appearing in the lead role of "Claude" (Barry McGuire as "Berger" co-stars) in the Broadway production of Hair. I still maintain that Joe is an undiscovered "matinee idol" . . . Flash new group is Donnie Kirshner's the Tomorrow. They can sing, dance and act, so you'll be getting them not only on records, but on TV and in the movies. Great things to come! . . . When Peter Tork left the Monkees, Davy, Micky and Mike presented him with a gold watch engraved "To Peter, for all he's done — from the boys down at work." It just goes to show you how groovy the Monkees really are . . . Speaking of the Monkees, KDWB Radio Program Director Earl Trout of St. Paul and Minneapolis is starting a petition to run a giant joint Monkees-Beatles live concert. If you think that's a good idea write to Earl and tell him so. Address your letters to: Earl Trout, KDWB Radio, Highway 12, Radio Drive, St. Paul, Minnesota.

DAVY MISQUOTED

Dear Miss Stavers,

There was an interview in one of those dum-dum magazines that was supposed to be with DAVY JONES. It said that the MONKEES were released from their Screen Gems contract, that DAVY sings My Old Man in Head, that he doesn't like the way MICKY sings, and it indicated that he thinks SAJID is a "15-year-old kid" — not a star! I don't think DAVY is really like this. I think that he's a good, kind, intelligent person. Could it be that he was misquoted? I sure hope so!

Clara Goode

Bangor, Maine

• Dear Clara,

DAVY personally disclaims all the quotes that you mention. He was just as confused and upset by all that junk as you were. So, please don't get angry at him for something he didn't say. First, the MONKEES have not been released by Screen Gems. As a matter of fact, Columbia-Screen Gems just bought the MONKEES' contract from Raybert Productions — and that contract has at least four more years to run. Columbia-Screen Gems, however, has given the MONKEES full leeway to do all the live shows, records, TV shows and movies they want to do. DAVY sings Daddy's Song in Head. There never was such a song as My Old Man. As for criticizing MICKY's singing — well, DAVY just never did that. In fact, DAVY loves the way MICKY sings, and MICKY is one of his closest friends. As for the SAJID remark, all that DAVY said was, "Please don't compare me to anyone." That includes SAJID, MARK LINDSAY, or even the other MONKEES. DAVY isn't a close friend of SAJID's, but he respects him as a fellow human being and as a fine performer. If a writer twists DAVY's words around so as to make him sound sarcastic and jealous — well, that's not DAVY's fault!

BOBBY'S BIRTH-SIGN

Dear Miss Stavers,

Please tell me the sign of the Zodiac under which BOBBY SHERMAN was born. My sign is Aries and I want to see if it matches up with BOBBY's.

Linda Fremont

Palo Alto, Calif.

• Dear Linda,

Not only can you see whether you and BOBBY match up, but you can find out everything the Zodiac says about BOBBY — just by following instructions on Page 9! You'll not only learn all about BOBBY, but about all your other favs!

McCALLUM RETURNS!

Dear Miss Stavers,

I hope that you and all your 16-ers caught DAVID McCALLUM's brilliant performance in NBC-TV's Hallmark Hall Of Fame on February 5th! The show was called Teacher Teacher — and it was great to see DAVID back in the limelight again!

Gwendolyn White

Portland, Oregon

SLEEPLESS OVER "SECRETS"

Dear Miss Stavers,

I'm just thrilled about your special book 1001 Top Star Secrets! I even read it after I'm supposed to be asleep!

Mandy Turner

Easton, Pa.

• Dear Mandy,

You're a luv! All other 16*-ers who want to lose some sleep, turn Page 15!*

PHOOEY TO MIKE COLE!

Dear Stupid 16,

And I do mean you! How can you keep printing pictures and stories on Don & Peter — look-alikes?

David & co-star Billy Schulman

FROM GLORIA STAVERS

I want to assure each and every one of you who writes a letter to me at 16 Magazine that your letter is delivered to me personally. I want to assure you also that I read every single letter I receive, that I'm grateful to you for writing to me and that I appreciate every suggestion and criticism you address to me. There isn't enough space in 16 Magazine for me to publish every letter I receive and there isn't enough time for me to answer every letter personally — but please keep writing and look for your letter and my answer each month in You're Telling Me!

Address all of your letters as follows: Miss Gloria Stavers, c/o 16 Magazine, Business Office, 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

that blah, dumb MIKE COLE? I think he's strictly nowhere! So, why don't you cut him out of 16 — and I'll become a loyal member again! Phooey on Mike Cole!!

Hollie Blackburn

Bronx, N. Y.

• Dear Hollie,

For heavens sakes, control yourself! If you don't like MIKE when he's on TV in Mod Squad every Tuesday night, just switch to another channel. However, if you'd like to give him another chance, you might wake up to the fact that he is a calm, cool, super-sweetheart of a guy. I mean, six million 16*-ers just can't be wrong!*

FAX & ADDRESSES

Dear Miss Stavers,

I've just started to read 16 (I love it!) and I'm anxious to write to my fav stars. Can you tell me where to send my letters?

Cindy Arthur

Des Moines, Iowa

• Dear Cindy,

Since you've just joined the 16 "family" (and welcome to the gang!), I'm sure you want to know all the fax on your favs as well as their addresses. Just turn to Page 53, follow the instructions, and you'll be a happier girl!

PETER'S TWIN(?)

Dear Miss Stavers,

I hope that you don't think I'm forward, but I have been told by a lot of kids that I look like PETER TORK. I went to a MONKEES' concert once and almost got mobbed. Frankly, it was a lot of fun! Please run my pic next to PETER's and tell me what you think.

Don Otto

Warren, Mich.

• Dear Don,

You're a hum-dinger, bell-ringer PETER TORK look-alike, all right! Thanks for sending your picture!

STEFAN'S HEIGHT

Dear Miss Stavers,

In 16, it said that STEFAN ARNGRIM is five feet and three inches tall and weighs 103 pounds. But I saw in some yukley mag that he is only five feet tall and weighs 85 pounds. Please tell me which is the truth. I know I can count on you.

Gloria White

Vancouver, Canada

• Dear Gloria,

Count on us you can! We have in STEFAN's own handwriting that he is five feet and three inches tall and weighs 103 pounds — and he's still growing. For more on STEFAN, see Page 42. Thanks for sticking with 16.

BIG, GROOVY PIN-UPS

Dear Miss Stavers,

Thanks so much for sending me your big, BIG, groovy pin-ups of BOBBY, DAVY, FRID and my other favs! WOW!!

Jane Bryant

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

• Dear Jane,

Thanks for your thanks, luvvie! Any other 16*-ers wanna flip out too? See Page 3!*

MAD FOR CLIFF POTTER

Dear Miss Stavers,

I'm mad — do you hear me, mad — for CLIFF POTTER, who plays "Andy Hill" in The Name Of The Game! Could you please tell me where I can write to him?

Debbie Woodell

Clayton, N.J.

• Dear Debbie,

You can write to CLIFF at NBC-TV, Hollywood, Calif. Be sure to print "I Am A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.

"THE DEVIL'S 8"

Dear Miss Stavers,

Would you please print head shots of the following from AI's The Devil's 8 — TOM NARDINI, LARRY BISHOP, CHRIS GEORGE and FABIAN?

Alice Ewell

Hot Springs, Ark.

• Dear Alice,

AI's The Devil's 8 is a wild and way-out movie. All you 16*-ers should be able to see it in March, April or May at your neighborhood theatres.*

ATTENTION

Ever have trouble getting 16 at your newsstand? Ever feel like having a fit when you find out the last copy has just been sold? Ever hear your girl friends tell you they can't find 16 in their neighborhood?

Well, you can help out and put an end to this ridiculous situation. Just fill in this coupon, cut it out and send it along with whatever else you are sending to 16. The problem will promptly be taken care of—and 16 will be oh, so grateful to YOU!

DESPERATE

Dear Miss Stavers,

I'm overweight, I'm shy, I have no girl friends and boys don't even know I'm around! Can you help me?

Laurie Vanders

Phoenix, Ariz.

• Dear Laurie,

Don't give up — help is very near! In fact, it's right on Page 49! Just send for 16*'s* How You Can Be Prettier Book and you'll find all the answers to your problems!

WHERE'S BRANDON?

Dear Miss Stavers,

I just love BRANDON DE WILDE, but I haven't seen much of him since 1965 when he starred in Those Calloways for Walt Disney. Can you tell me what he's up to now?

Mary Whitney

Dallas, Texas

• Dear Mary,

Here's a picture of BRANDON as he looked in Calloways (which was just re-run on NBC-TV's Wonderful World Of Color — hope you caught it!) Keep a close look at your TV screen cos BRANDON just might turn up there again as he did on a recent episode of ABC-TV's Journey To The Unknown.
